

Dear Beneficiary (SCAM, SPAM)

Spamming is the use of messaging systems to send an unsolicited message (spam), especially advertising, as well as sending messages repeatedly on the same website. While the most widely recognized form of spam is email spam, the term is applied to similar abuses in other media: instant messaging spam, Usenet newsgroup spam, Web search engine spam, spam in blogs, wiki spam, online classified ads spam, mobile phone messaging spam, Internet forum spam, junk fax transmissions, social spam, spam mobile apps,[1] television advertising and file sharing spam.

A scam is an illegal trick, usually with the purpose of getting money from people or avoiding paying tax.

Dear Beneficiary

Please be informed that your email address have benefited One hundred and fifty thousand, five hundred dollars ($150,500.00) in the Amnesty International annual online eMail users promotional draw. As the owner of the functional email address, to process your claims, please provide the following information

Names..... Present residential/postal address.....
Occupation..... Age/Sex..... Tel No.....and Name of next of kin/Relationship with next of kin

Please be informed that this information should be factual as details entered for your claims processing can not be changed.

As part of our regulations to ensure that beneficiaries receive their benefits as at when appropriate within 14 working days of receipt of your detailed information, we will be looking forward to your personal presence in our office to receive your benefits. As we received the required information for documentation, we will update you on our office location and address

Congratulations

Maxwell Vicalis

Claims processing officer