

Display Data and Save That Data with One Command

The Tee-Object cmdlet enables you to display data in the Windows PowerShell window and to save that same data to a text file, all with a single command. For example, this command uses the Get-Process cmdlet to retrieve information about all the processes currently running on the computer, then uses Tee-Object to simultaneously display the data on-screen and save that data to the file C:\Scripts\Test.txt:

```
[crayon-6a9d5def450c1853063387/]
```