

$ErrorActionPreference in PowerShell

- Whenever a PowerShell command encounters a non-terminating error, it checks a build-in variable `$ErrorActionPreference`.
  - Continue – This is the default. Displays error and keeps running.
  - SilentlyContinue – Keeps running but does not display the error.
  - Stop – Displays error and stops execution
  - Inquire – Prompts you for the next action